Printing & Mailing . . . Made Easy!

Dear Valued Customers and Friends,

Our communities are facing a challenge of incredible scale and magnitude as we continue to monitor the rapidly changing news around the Coronavirus (COVID-19). Our initial thoughts are of course, for the health and well-being of our clients, team members and community and for those on the front lines, battling this global pandemic.

These are unprecedented times for all but we want you to feel reassured that our staff is fully functioning as we adhere to the strict guidelines set by local government and health officials. We continue to monitor the implications of COVID-19, and while national and local recommendations rapidly change, I want to share with you a few important Pittsford Printing updates:

Pittsford Printing is and has been fully operational.

Pittsford Printing's decision to remain fully operational was put forth by the New York and Federal list of businesses that are considered essential and exempt.

We are here to support you in any way that we can to help ensure your business continuity, continued manufacturing and distribution. We are committed to have all of your communications printed and distributed under the same time critical progress effectively and efficiently.

The entire Pittsford Printing team is and has been virus-free, and we are taking the highest levels of precautions to prevent any spread of the COVID-19 virus.

We value the relationship we have with you and vow to be here for you as your needs arise. As new developments occur daily, we will continue to communicate with you as appropriate. We appreciate your patience and continued confidence as we navigate through this challenging time.

Should you need anything at all, please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

Thank you.
